

LET THERE BE MUSIC! WWW.PORCHFEST.WIN

DO YOU HAVE A BAND, A STORY, A POEM, OR A VENUE TO HOST PERFORMERS IN JUNE?

Introducing the First Ever WINCHESTER PORCHFEST!

Date: Saturday, June 12, 2021, from noon – 5:30 pm (Rain Date: Sunday, June 13)

Porchfest is coming to Winchester! For those of you not familiar with Porchfest, it is a one day, volunteer driven, free community event that provides public venues for individuals and groups to share their music and performance art. Do you have a musical act, recite poetry or tell stories? Do you have a place to host the performances? The venues can include Porches, Driveways, Parking Lots, Front Yards, Back Yards, etc., of private homes, places of worship, or businesses.

Participation is open to all ages. Preference will be given to groups that have Winchester residents in them. COVID GUIDELINES MUST BE FOLLOWED BY ALL PERFORMERS AND HOSTS. We hope to attract many different types of acts, including:

- Music of any kind (rock, soul, jazz, hip hop/rap, folk, classical, bluegrass, Americana, country, reggae, kids' music, international, choral, opera, etc.)
- Poetry/Dance/Story telling

Please sign up to perform, to volunteer, or to offer your venue for all or part of the afternoon.

(You get to choose what type of performances you would like to host, if you have a preference.)

Please go to porchfest.win for more info and to fill out the form.

Brought to you by the Winchester Porchfest Committee, aka "The PorchStars":

Fred Yen (Winchester Farmers Market)

Laurie Russell (Winchester Community Music School)

George Gilmer and Nadeem Baba (Winchester High School students)

Shukong Ou and Peter Pulsifer (Winchester Cultural Council)

Salma Abounadi, Omar Baba, Keith Doo, Shiva Barton, Susan Rozmanith (civilians)

WE ARE LOOKING FOR MORE VOLUNTEERS TO HELP MAKE THIS A REALITY!
